THREE POETS GO ON STRIKE.

Alleged Publisher Signs His Own Name to Their Lacubration.(By Federal (Wireless) Line, to The Times.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF
THE TIMES, Aug. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Poets, too, are organizing for higher and steadier pay. Three poets of the Jewish Comic Weekly, the "Big Stick," of the Ghetto, went on strike today alleging the publisher, Jacob Marloff, signed his name to their lacubration.

a distance of three miles east and west are congested with freight cars.
All passenger trains have been run over the Lake Shore between Chicago and Detroit.

The rain, that fell in torrents, cut
high banks and completely destroyed
the Michigan Central yards for a distance of 1000 feet in Niles, Mich.
Wrecking crews, officers of the road and section hands all along the line hurried there and 400 men are now repairing the damage.

STREETS ARE RIVERS.

Water rushed through the business streets of Niles and other cities, tearing up pavements, foundations of buildings and everything in its course.
In the Big Four Railway yards the road bed was washed into the St.
Joseph River and many freight cars were carried with the current into the stream.

Mine show cars belonging to a circus in the Big Four yards are immersed in the flood and cannot be moved.

C. W. Hushower of South Bend, Ind., was seriously injured by being struck by lightning while entering the city in an auto. In the car with Hushower were three men from South Bend, who were hurrying with him to make repairs to the street car company's high tension wires, but they escaped injury.

A private dam belonging to the Cantrell Milling Company and several highway and railway bridges were damaged.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Taft probably will sign the Panama Canal bill, although he dislikes the form of the provision exempting American ships in the coastwise trade from the payment of tolls. Informal announcement to this effect was made in administration circles this afternoon,
following a Cabinet luncheon at the White House. With the adoption of the Conference Committee report by the House last night, the measure's fate rests entirely with the President and it was for the purpose of discussion of the situation that the latter requested the members of the Cabinet to meet him today.

IMPELLING INFLUENCE.

It is understood that the President's decision to crown his veto record with the impelling influence in arriving at a tentative decision not to disapprove of the canal bill. He does not want to jeopardize the legislation as he feels he might at this time by arousing additional resentment in Congress to that already worked up over other subjects.

Some of the Congress leaders doubtless have given the President to understand that a resolution such as he proposes will be adopted; but there is a strong feeling among certain members of the Senate and House in favor of having American ships pass through the canal free of toll regardless of the treaty or any interpretation of it. Some of these members may make a fight against any action that involves the possibility of eliminating the toll by reason of its being in violation of treaty obligations.

ONE DEAD, SIX INJURED.

Touring Car Crashes Into a Ravine
on Half Moon Bay Road With Eightfold Results.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN MATEO (Cal.) Aug. 18.—Mrs.
J. F. Fendricks of Piedmont, an Oakland suburb, was instantly killed and several other persons were injured
when a big touring car driven by R.
O. Perrin, a San Francisco automobile agent, crashed into a ravine on the Half Moon Bay road this afternoon.
The injured:
Mrs. Mary Perrin, the driver's mother, back wrenched, ankle sprained.
Miss Uria Perrin, her daughter,
bruised and cut.
Gerald Perrin, aged five, hip and shoulder fractured.
J. E. Fendricks, face cut, body
bruised.
Eugene Fendricks, aged six, skull
fractured, collarbone broken; may die.
R. G. Perrin was only slightly bruised and his brother, Boyne, escaped without injury.

The accident occurred on a grade.
The car skidded, tore through a fence guarding the embankment, and plunged twenty feet into the ditch, turning completely over. The car fell across the narrow ravine, thereby probably saving the lives of many of the party. Mrs. Fendricks was described as crushed.

Other automobiles rushed the injured to the San Mateo Red Cross Hospital, twelve miles away.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BOSTON, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Ruth Elliot, grand daughter of President's Emeritus Charles W. Elliot, of Harvard, intends to become an accomplished housewife
before her marriage to Roger Pierce, her father's secretary, with whom she fell in love while accompanying President Elliot in his trip around the world.
For this reason she has not set a date for the wedding.

"I am going to become equipped with all the information I can about housekeeping," said Miss Elliot. "While on our summer home, I am going to learn the art of home making. For I think that every girl should be well informed on this before she marries."
Such a resolution would permit foreign ambassadors to come to the wedding and the great trouble of today is a home many young women are totally ignorant of the art of housekeeping.

FIANCE IS PROUD.
Standing close by, was the young woman's fiance, who by the way has accompanied his bride-to-be to Mount Desert. He looked proud of all the wisdom of the young speaker and his broad smile told that he didn't care
who knew it.

ELEVATED CAR MEN VOTE ON STRIKE TODAY.

Expected to Join the Surface Railway Employees in Chicago in a Strike in Event the Companies Refuse Demands—Officials Declare They Will Not Bankrupt
Their Treasuries to Please the Unions.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Following the refusal of John M. Roch, president of the Chicago Railway Company, to grant any material concessions to the union street car men at a conference held today, matters assumed a more serious aspect than at any time since the wage negotiations began.

Mayor Harrison will be asked to use his influence to bring about a settlement.

W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, and the presidents of the three local unions, will wait on the Mayor and inform him the situation has reached a critical stage.

The employees on the elevated railroads will begin taking a strike vote tomorrow. That the vote will be for a strike as it was on the surface lines
the officers are confident, although such a vote does not necessarily mean
a strike will be called.

THE DIFFERENCES.
Most important of the differences between the companies and the men
is the question of employees on night cars. On the lines of the Chicago Railways Company the custom for years has been to pay men extra hours'
pay for five hours' work. The Chicago City Railway Company has had a different agreement on that point and has had to pay the men only for actual platform time, except that they have been allowed time for lunch.

The Chicago Railway Company is trying to do away with the payment of extra wages on night cars, while the men are determined to maintain the present arrangement and also extend it to the City Railway lines.

L. A. Busby, president of the Chicago City Railway Company, tonight declared the companies are not to blame for the delays, as some progress has been made in each conference.

BUSBY'S STATEMENT.
"We know what the men are trying to do," said Mr. Busby. "They want to get us to promise a general wage increase and then insist on new working conditions, which would make an increase impossible. We must know what the changes in working conditions are to cost before we can commit ourselves on a wage advance. So far as I am concerned I do not propose to bankrupt the company with my eyes open and if we concede anything like the demands it would mean bankruptcy. If we cannot reach a settlement directly with the committee, we are willing to let an arbitration board settle the whole question."

Mr. Busby said he is not alarmed over the situation and expects to keep on operating cars.

CRUEL MESSAGE TO WIFE.
"The first volley not killing the prisoner, repeated volleys were fired until the general's body was completely disemboweled, it being necessary to dress the corpse. A message was sent to the victim's wife for more clothes, as her husband felt cold in the night air."

OF COURSE, HE'S DEFEATED.

(By A. P. Night Wire.) Delighted

Flesh Pots Long.Political Expediency May

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The pressure on Gov. Johnson to induce him to resign has grown so strong within the last twenty-four hours that those who are in close touch with him predict he cannot withstand it. Johnson will start for the East on his speaking tour on the 25th inst., which will be a week from Tuesday, and the story that comes out of Executive offices in the Capitol gains force that when he starts he will not be Governor of California, but will have passed that honor over to Lieut.-Gov. Wallace.

LIKES THE FLESH POT.

Johnson does not want to give up the office. It leaks out from the daily conferences and consultations that have taken place in his rooms at the Capitol that the Governor finds his control of the State machine, with the $10,000 a year salary and a well-furnished home, to be very much to his liking; and to exchange these fleshpots for the lean measures of stamping out at his own expense, with a return to the private practice of the law, after November, does not appeal to him at all.

VIEW OF HIMSELF.

"I'm not exactly demented," he is reported to have replied to one of his advisers who suggested the glory to be gotten from the advertising he would get if he resigned, especially when Woodrow Wilson, Democratic candidate for President, is holding on to his office. It is a fact that Hiram is certainly not demented. The man who followed his political machine in Sacramento twenty years ago when he and George Clark owned the town know that he was the exceedingly long-headed and looked out for himself at all times. He is a shrewd judge and has no delusions as to the possibility of his being elected Vice-President. He knows it cannot be done.
And he does hate to give up the present substantial entities and perquisites for the mere privilege of talking from a public platform; for Hiram is not so fond of hearing his own voice as some may believe. He likes to talk,
but he wants to be paid for it.

SOLE LEATHER HIDE.

Tough as is his hide, however, the criticisms of those to whom he must listen have found their way to a sensitive spot. What ethical considerations could not accomplish, political policy is said to have achieved.
Senator Work's criticism of the Johnson-Linsner plans was made in public and hurt. But it also stirred up the fighting disposition of Johnson. The ensured that he has been receiving during the last week, however, has been of such a nature that Johnson could not refuse his ear have declared to him that his proposal to remain as Governor and as a leader in the Republican party of California in name, while knifing the party and seeking himself to be elected Vice-President on another party's ticket, is an infamy that will prove suicidal.

STEALING THE VOTE.

Although his own sense of propriety
was not outraged by the idea of stealing the Republican vote of California away from President Taft and Vice-President Sherman in order to give it to himself, such a proposition has aroused the men who have a sense of decency left and who have the entree to the Governor's office, and they have made themselves heard. The shamelessness of the thing has been forced home on him and the certainty that in the reaction two years hence he would be thrown out of power, has been emphasized until he has had to see it.

TRILOBITE FACE.

The pressure has resulted in the long face of Al McCabe, his private secretary, growing several inches longer, for, although the agreement is that McCabe is to be retained as private secretary by Wallace, yet it is not possible that he can ever have the power under Wallace that he has had under Johnson. And Johnson does not want to let go the reins altogether. He would like, through Mc-Cabe, to hold on to a little, so that he would have some substantial grasp on the State machine after November. Still, McCabe is quoted as saying that he did not see how Johnson could stay in office.

It is a fact that Wallace has been kept in close touch with the situation.
Wallace, of course, would not be adverse to being head of the State,
and has been willing to agree to almost anything. The probability of a

Bull Moose Defections Now

Republicans Are Confident of Complete Triumph.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.)

BURLINGTON (Vt.) Aug. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] With five political parties engaged in the struggle for votes in Vermont in the campaign before the election of September 3, it is plain there is to be a good deal of excitement for the onlookers before the final "draw" settles the fate of four of the contestants. It may be conceded that the Socialists and the Prohibitionists are marked for death from the start, although the "drift" party always makes a good deal of noise in this State and the present year is no exception to the rule. The Democrats are also full of fight and promise to make things lively for the G.O.P. in the divided condition that after all, the chief interest centers in just how far the Republican split extends and how much of a showing the Bull Moose makes in the State.

HIRAM WILL BE TIERED.

As the plans now run, Col. Roosevelt will stump the State in company with Gov. Hiram Johnson, his running mate, and Senator Dixon, who engineered the campaign for him up to the time of the Republican convention. Although funds are said to be not lacking in the Third Term war chest, it is asserted no private care will be used in the Vermont campaign, lest this "appearance of extravagance" stir up criticism for the leader. There are undoubted signs of a drift away from the party of "righteousness," however. Of these, the most important is considered the renunciation by Wallace Bachelor, leader of the third-term candidate, his ways and work. Other adherents of the colored in the re-convention day among them Charles H. Thompson, have also fallen away from his cause.

THIRD TERM DEFECTIONS.

Already two of the three newspapers which supported Roosevelt before the convention have returned to the regular fold. Those are the Morristown Messenger and the Groton Times. The latter has announced that after recent deliberations, it could not support the colonial even if he were the nominee of the Republican party. The Democrat Valley Times, the third of the erstwhile Bull Moose supporters, is yet to be heard from.

BULL MOOSE MEET A FIZZLE.

Another factor in the growing feeling that as far as Vermont is concerned the Bull Moose is going to cause little trouble, was at the recent meeting of the third party State convention in this city only fifty-seven persons participated, and these were not chosen as delegates, but acted in their individual capacity.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN AIR.

Meanwhile, while the defections and portents are foreboding discomfiture for the Third Termers, the regular Republicans are planning a campaign which will not be lacking in vigor. Charles D. Hillis, the chairman of the National Committee, has given the Republican State headquarters a formidable list of spellbinders whom it is planned to have visit the State in the interest of President Taft and the State ticket headed by Fletcher. The list includes: Senator Borah of Idaho, Senator Foss of Michigan, Representative Foss of Illinois, McCall of Massachusetts, Campbell of Kansas, E. J. Hill of Illinois, ex-Gov. Bachelder of New Hampshire, Judge D. Woodmansee of Ohio and James E. Watson of Indiana. The outlook in the State is for a safe Republican majority, with the Bull Moose party running a poor second to the Democrats.

Contest for Petty Offices Becomes so Hot that the Skirted Voters are Unable to Control Their Temper and to Prevent Serious Consequences Organization Disbands.

(By Direct Wire to The Times.)

SPOKANE (Wash.) Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The "Women's Auxiliary to the Bull Moose Party" was officially killed at a meeting in "Progressive" headquarters last night and Mrs. A. P. Fassett, who had been chosen temporary president thereby lost her office. The disbandment was ordered by the Bull Moose organization, because of the hot fight for leadership which has been going among the women. Mrs. Fassett, Mrs. Sarah Flanagan and Mrs. Phoebe Cox being the contestants.

Although the women were careful to bring no personalities into the debate, the fight generally was regarded as one engineered by the element favorable to Mrs. Cox as against Mrs. Fassett, who had gained the controlling position.

In the future there will be no separate women's organization. The third termers of the fair sex will work with the masculine members of the Roosevelt league.

The women met for the purpose of perfecting their organization, but a motion made to make the temporary organization of the "Women's Auxiliary to the Bull Moose Party" permanent was lost.

Duke of Orleans.

Who, according to London reports, is to quit the English capital for the "drift" party always makes a good deal of noise in this State and the present year is no exception to the rule. The Democrats are also full of fight and promise to make things lively for the G.O.P. in the divided condition that after all, the chief interest centers in just how far the Republican split extends and how much of a showing the Bull Moose makes in the State.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is said the Duke of Orleans, who recently sold his English place, Wood Norton, intends to purchase an estate and make his future home in either the United States or Canada.

Although officially forgiven for his violent attack on the English royal family during the Boer war, which involved his absence from England for a considerable time, he has never recovered his position in English society, and has consequently become quite tired of life here.

The Duke will sail soon for the United States. After a visit with Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, he will go to the northwest provinces for the shooting.

Dr. Wilson is going to deliver an Address to Members of the "Volks-festverein" of Union Hill.

SEAGIRT (N. J.) Aug. 18.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson returns tomorrow from a week of campaigning. Tomorrow he will address the Platt-Deutscher Volksfestverein of Union Hill, N. J., at that place, and on Tuesday he will speak at Trenton at the annual meeting of the Democratic League. Wednesday the Governor will attend the annual ball by parade at Asbury Park, N. J. His engagements for the rest of the week have not been announced, but it is probable that he will make at least two speeches.

Joseph F. Davies, national committeeman of Wisconsin, saw the Governor Tuesday. Mr. Davies is tomorrow for Chicago to open western headquarters. Senator O'Gorman of New York was with Mr. Davies at Springfield.

"We want Gov. Wilson to speak in the Middle West just as soon as possible," said Mr. Davies, "and leaving the Governor's cottage." "Dates, however, have not been fixed."

Mr. Davies said he would have the western headquarters in full swing before the end of the week. Immediately afterward, he said, he would make a trip to the Pacific Coast, visiting every State, conferring with national committeemen and State chairmen.

NOMINATION GOES BEGGING.

Democrats Call Convention at Sacramento to Choose Candidate for Congress in Third District.

(By Direct Wire to The Times.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By direction of the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Central Committee, a convention has been called to assemble in this city next Thursday afternoon to select a party candidate for Congress from the Third District, composed of Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano, Contra Costa and Yolo counties. This action is unprecedented since the adoption of the State primary law. But no candidate appeared by petition for the Democratic nomination in this district, and the law now requires in such cases, that a name shall be written in as often on the ballots as signatures would be required for nomination by petition, to make the nomination valid. Hence the desire for concerted effort at the primary.

Two strong Republican candidates have been in the field for several months, and this has not made the Democratic nomination in this district. They are former Secretary of State Charles F. Curry, and former Judge Frank Davis of Vallejo. The latter is backed by the Bull Moose State machine.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Aug. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] The World today says: Correspondents of the World in the southern States have added some interesting information regarding the probable effect of the bid of the Bull Moose party will have on the results in them in November.

No theorists of prominence have allied themselves with Col. Roosevelt's third term movement and his plan for putting a Democrat of prominence on the State and local ticket seem doomed to failure owing to the disinclination of Democrats to subscribe to the colored "confession of faith."

"The speakers' bureau will be organized next week by the selection of a speaker-in-chief. Requests for speaking and letters from Republicans all over the country volunteering to take the stump for us are pouring in from all over the country. Speakers, however, will not be fairly started until September, and we will make the dates suit the convenience of the various State committees. By the first of October, we will have hundreds of orators all over the country fighting for the party which gave Abraham Lincoln to the American nation. Never, in my long years in the Republican party, have I known such a rush to defend the standards long borne aloft with honor."

BANKS ARE ASKED TO COLLECT CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

Plan Is Proposed to Receive and Transmit Subscriptions from the People in All Parts of the United States to the National Officers of Three Parties.

(By A. P. Night Wire to The Times.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Acting Chairman McAdoo of the Democratic National Committee today gave out a statement in which he announced he had requested every bank and trust company in the United States to agree to receive and transmit subscriptions to each of the three national parties. He accompanied his letter to the banks with a letter from Gov. Wilson, favoring the scheme and explaining it.

In his letter, Mr. McAdoo expressed the idea that the popular subscription movement was directly in the line of the President's Presidential campaign "from the suspicion of sinister influences" and that the Democratic party favored the "financing of Presidential campaigns by the people themselves."

UP TO THE BANKS.

"Will you agree to receive and transmit subscriptions to the Democratic National, the Republican National and the Progressive National Committee?" The letter from Gov. Wilson reads: "To bring about the election of a President through a campaign financed by popular subscriptions would be a distinct and gratifying triumph. It would strikingly evidence the renewed supremacy of the people, and would mean the permanent separation of our government from those selfish influences which have too long been relied upon to furnish the campaign funds in return for favors to be bestowed. I am in hearty sympathy with every effort that may contribute to such a result. The idea back of the proposed contributors' movement is thoroughly commendable, and I hope that you and your associates will push it and make it an effective instrument for the attainment of so praiseworthy an object."

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional President of China, disregarding the warnings of friends, who fear for his safety since the execution of several Hankow generals, left Shanghai today for Peking. Gen. Huang Sing, who commanded the southern Republican army in the revolution that overthrew the imperial government, was to have accompanied Dr. Sun, but abandoned the journey.

The southern generals recently put to death were members of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's party, the Tung Men Hui, and were seized at the capital by direction of President Yuan Shi Kai on the charge of being implicated in an alleged conspiracy against the Peking government. Two of the officers were tried by drumhead court-martial and shot. The others were returned in chains to Hankow and there executed.

THOROUGHGOING REVISION

OF FEDERAL EQUITY RULES.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—With the aid of an elaborate card index system, three members of the United States Supreme Court are laboring this summer over a new set of rules for equity practice in Federal courts, which are expected almost to revolutionize the work of these tribunals.

The three are Chief Justice White and Associate Justices Lurton and Vandewater. They expect to be able during the next term of court to lay before the full court the result of their labors. Once the court has given its approval the new rules will be promulgated for enforcement in all Federal courts.

This work is the result of determination of Chief Justice White. He regarded the present rules, unamended through the decades, as instruments of delay and invitations to tremendous cost bills. Thousands of suggestions for amendments to the rules have been received by the court committee of three through its secretary, W. J. Hughes, of the Department of Justice. They came from judges, bar associations and individual lawyers.

REAL BEAUTY UNDER A BAN.

RADZIWILL PRINCE CALLS HIS SON'S WIFE A "PERSON."

(By Direct Wire to The Times.)

BOSTON, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to Warsaw newspapers, all members of the great Polish family Radziwill are forbidden by Prince George, Duke of Nisewicz, Count of Mir, etc., and head of the house of Radziwill, from going anywhere near the Riviera, lest they accidentally meet "that American person who calls herself wife of our son."

Prince George also puts his official ban upon the right of succession to any children to Princess Radziwill, who, was, before her marriage, the beautiful Boston girl, Dorothy Deacon, prominent in society from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast, and as well known in European capitals as in Newport.

All these manifestoes by Prince George were issued in spite of the fact that Dorothy Deacon was legally married to Prince Antoine in London, July 5, 1911, at which time the press of the world gave much space to the event, due in large part to the fame of the Deacon family, itself an old American family of early French descent. Love has never run smoothly in the Deacon family and they had their share of other troubles. It has been noted for its hard luck, as well as for the beauty of the three Deacon sisters, Dorothy, Gladys and Edith.

A score of indignities were heaped upon Dorothy Deacon by other members of the proud and wealthy Radziwill family immediately after her marriage to Prince Antoine, culminating in final insults in which Prince George declares he does not recognize the American beauty as the real wife of his son.

Protect Your Valuables Before it Happens

Forestall the accident or misfortune to your valuable papers, heirlooms, your silver and jewels BEFORE it happens. A wall safe points the way to the house breaker. A gust of wind, a careless caretaker may cause the loss of valuable papers. Fire insurance money cannot bring back treasured heirlooms.

There is no need of taking any chances with valuables which cannot be replaced when for $2.50 you can rent a spacious box in the fire, flood and burglar proof vaults of this strong bank. The safety of one insurance paper or one deed is well worth the small cost for protection.

automobile, or some other splendid prize.

All contestants are required to do is to secure the seventy-seven pictures and turn them in at the end of the contest. Each picture represents the title of a book. And in order to aid contestants to get these pictures the first thirty-five are given free with the contest catalog. This catalog is issued to help contestants solve the pictures.

Why not get a catalog right now,
get the first thirty-five pictures free
with it, and spend an evening or two solving the pictures? That will show you how much fun there is in this contest. There is no work connected with it in any way. It is just a game
—a great game—in which prize-worth many thousands of dollars will be awarded.

Get this catalog. The fact that you
get the first thirty-five pictures free
with it is only an incidental feature of the book. It is a list of about 4500 book titles, and from it was selected the seventy-seven book titles represented by the seventy-seven contest pictures.

In other words, ALL THE SEVEN-TY-SEVEN CORRECT TITLES ARE IN THE CATALOG.

You'll learn more about the contest
by reading today's announcement. It tells you, for instance, how you can make as many as ten answers to each picture, and yet need only one copy of each picture. And at a price which is less than you would pay for seventy-seven separate pictures—the price of the Answer Book. The Answer Book sells at 75 cents or 75 cents by mail. With it you are enabled to make ten different answers to each picture if you wish, and yet you need only ONE copy of each of the seventy-seven contest pictures.

Take a look at today's picture.
What title does it represent?

Scenes of Action in the California War Maneuvers.

Ahorse and Afoot

The civilian soldiers of the State of California are reported to be having the time of their lives in the Salinas country in the annual maneuvers. The picture of the mounted men show scouts charging up a hill. The other picture shows scouts crouched to fire, holding their horses by the reins. These interesting photographs were made by M. Franklin Kline, late of the Boer War, and now a scout of the Seventh Infantry of the California National Guard.

Maneuvers.

STEELED FOR THE BATTLE THAT WILL COST NO LIFE.

Soldiers in the Army Maneuvers Eagerly Await Dawn to Enter a Fray that Is Expected to Teach Them the Best There Is in the Art and Science of War—Lines Only Ten Miles Apart.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—About the camps of the red (invaders) and the blue (defenders) armies tonight, the troops are talking of the battle that is impending and speculating as to which will gain the victory. The commanders of both forces—Col. Cornelius Gardener of the blues, and Gen. Robert Wankowski—are confident that they will win the day and this belief is shared by the troops in their respective commands.

TEN MILES APART. The lines of the defenders and their enemies are only ten miles apart. The forces of Col. W. H. C. Bowen, commanding the advance guard of the blues, having made camp tonight at Morgan Hill, which is seventy-one miles from San Francisco, and the forces of Gen. Wankowski being encamped at the schoolhouse at Gilroy. The reds reached Gilroy half an hour after the rear guard of the blues had resumed their retreat to the north. The pursuers, fresh from their victory at Pajaro River yesterday, were eager for more fighting, but the commander, acting under orders not to move too fast, in order that both armies might reach the battlefield of Coyote together, halted his men to-night.

There was a lull in the camp of the blues today, the soldiers resting on their arms preparatory to the forward movement that will begin to-morrow morning. As a result the camp was thronged with sightseers from San Jose, and neighboring towns all day, and the band of the Sixteenth Infantry gave two concerts.

TO SPRING A SURPRISE. It is possible Col. Gardener of the army will spring a surprise on the enemy by ordering his command to break camp early tomorrow, make a forced march to Coyote and dispose of his troops to such advantage that his brigade will be in a position either to attack aggressively or repulse the reds. While Col. Gardener has not divulged his plans it is generally known among his ranking officers he has so planned his campaign that the red army will find itself either forced to attack an army in an unusually strategic position, or else act on the defensive and endeavor to sustain the shock of a vigorous attack that will be delivered by an army composed for the

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.] HONOLULU, Aug. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Rear Admiral Rooks, United States Navy, retired, in an address before one of the commercial organizations here, urged the building of thousand foot wharves and the dredging of a channel into the harbor in order to prepare for the opening of the Panama Canal.

MAINE VOTES NEXT MONTH.

Due to Recent Political Upheaval Result Will Be Watched With More Than Usual Curiosity. [By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.] PORTLAND (Me.) Aug. 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Maine holds its State election September 9, two months before other States, with the exception of Vermont, and votes for State officers and Representatives in Congress. Heretofore, with Presidential campaigns pending, returns from the September elections from Vermont and Maine have been scanned with interest by politicians the country over. For the first time in fifty years, Maine went Democratic in 1910, a Democratic Governor and Legislature being chosen, two of the four Republican Congressmen falling of re-election.

Imperial County Health Officer Will Advise Against Establishing Quarantine Against Spread of Disease.

Four young men of Imperial were today bound over to the Superior Court as a result of an alleged jail break on Friday night. The men were arrested on various charges and were lodged in the city jail by the city marshal. They were discovered in the jail on the roof of the jail, through which it is alleged former prisoners had escaped, and upon investigation they were found to be the same.

Imperial Valley falls with delight the news of the immediate construction of the East Side high line canal. The construction of this canal will bring only fifty-two acres of 100,000 acres of fertile land and will draw many more settlers to the county and district.

SIAMESE ARE TRACTABLE LOT.

Woman's Control Perfect in One Voting Precinct.

Upland Prohibitionists Far Outnumber Democrats.

Child for Every Home in San Bernardino County.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 18.—This county has one voting precinct, Siamese, which has not a woman voter in it. Siamese lies midway between this city and Needles, on the desert. One explanation is that the women of the little town have absolute influence over the male vote, and have never yet found election results unsatisfactory.

The new register also shows that Upland almost succeeded in converting all the Democrats to Republican principles. Out of a total registration of 223 voters, only fifty-two are known to be Democrats. Even the Prohibitionists outnumber the Upland Democrats two to one. The Republican ratio is ten to one. At Redlands the Republican ratio is five to one; Chino, four to one, and Ontario, five to one. In this city the Republicans registered two and a half times as many voters as the Democrats.

FOR EVERY HOME. Secretary R. W. Braxton of the Native Sons has commenced a campaign through this county to secure a child for every home which is childless, providing the conditions are favorable for the development of children into sturdy citizens.

"No home should be childless. The married couple who might have children if they would, and don't, are monumental exemplifications of utter selfishness," is the slogan of the Native Sons and Daughters in the present child campaign. To help along the good work Mr. Braxton has secured a list of waifs in San Francisco homes, and this list is being mailed to the childless couples from which to make a selection.

ROUTED BY SCREAM. Joseph Ames loved pretty Emma Esposa so violently that when she refused to accept his attentions he drew a revolver and made a wild declaration that death for them both would be the best way out of his love affair. Tomorrow he will plead guilty before Justice of the Peace J. B. Hanna to simple assault. When he displayed the revolver the girl screamed, and the lover fled. His arrest soon followed.

Owing to the circumstances, the parents of the girl are willing to let a simple assault charge settle the matter. Attorney Albert Trifilio has advised a plea of guilty, and Asst. Dist. Atty. Frank T. Bates has signed his approval.

BIG CARNIVAL. Labor Day is to be celebrated at Harbor Springs by the Moose Patrol with a big carnival. The queen of the carnival will be selected by popular vote from the various lodges of the city. ## WOMEN'S HAIR DESTROYED

Great Havoc Wrought by Women's Carelessness.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soaps or preparations which contain ingredients harmful to the scalp or hair.

As a result of such treatment dandruff is created, the hair loosens, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain ingredients bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Most people can rid themselves of dandruff and correct diseased scalp and hair conditions if they will use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will eradicate dandruff and prevent baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. Resal "93" Hair Tonic is the remedy that will grow hair and overcome scalp and hair troubles. It will grow hair even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grew hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial and practical test.

We want you to try Resal "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You would better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Resal Remedies in Los Angeles only at our store. The Ori Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle and Spokane.

TARIFF RESOLUTION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Senator Newlands offered yesterday a resolution proposing a joint Congressional committee to confer with President Taft for an agreement on tariff legislation. It finally went over with Mr. Newlands saying he would ask for a vote later. Senator Lodge objected on the ground that the resolution was unconstitutional. Senator Root declared that the question of communication between the Executive and Congress was of great importance and recommended that a general reform be instituted to bring the Executive and legislative branches closer.

CUPID'S BONDS OF GARY STEEL.

Millionaire Louis A. Bryan Is Wedded Here.

Former Owner of Igon City Again a Benedict.

Quiet Ceremony at Home of Bride's Relatives.

Louis A. Bryan, who bought the site of the great steel town of Gary, Ind., for 9 cents an acre and sold portion of it for several millions, was married in this city yesterday morning to a pretty Detroit girl, Miss Winifred A. Harner. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Frank Howard Tate, No. 453 West Avenue 52, a cousin of the bride.

Bryan is 58, his bride just over 20. The Los Angeles wedding culminates a transcontinental courtship and brings again into the limelight the earlier marital experiences of the Gary millionaire who assumes for the third time the responsibilities of a benedict.

The first Mrs. Bryan died in this city in February, 1910. A few months later Bryan married his stenographer, Ethel Thayer of Chicago, a beautiful girl of 24. The day following this marriage Bryan took his wife to a Chicago jewelry store and bought her $10,000 worth of diamonds. Three days later the stones were stolen from her while riding in a suburban train. Bryan at once hurried to Chicago and duplicated the order. The marriage, however, was not a happy one, and after several disagreements, Bryan filed suit for divorce.

Mrs. Bryan appeared in court and obtained an injunction from Judge Willis McMahon restraining Bryan from disposing of any of his property, and at that time Bryan was awarded $12 a week on which to live. His wife to remain in possession of the Gary home.

RECENTLY DIVORCED.

On April 9, of this year, Bryan's attorney announced that the divorce trouble was settled and that Mrs. Bryan was to receive $16,500 in cash in addition to retaining the jewels and automobiles.

The divorce decree was entered by Judge McMahon of Crown Point, Ind., on April 16, and during the hearing it was alleged by Mrs. Bryan that one of the "cruel" practices of Bryan was his insistence that she gown herself every night in evening garb, and that on one occasion he made her go motoring in a low-necked dinner gown.

Bryan and Miss Harner came to Los Angeles about three weeks ago and registered at the Lankershim hotel. Yesterday's ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Herbert Thompson, a life long friend of the groom. The bride, attired in a beautiful gown of white silk, was unattended. She wore a bracelet studded with diamonds, a $15,000 gift of the millionaire. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left for an automobile tour of the State, and later will occupy a new home recently purchased by Bryan in the Westmoreland district.

MADE—LOST FORTUNES.

Bryan has made and lost several fortunes during the course of an eventful life, but his latest and greatest financial coup came off at Gary, the founding of which brought him wealth in eight figures to compute. In addition he is said to have made several hundred thousands dollars in real estate deals in the vicinity of Los Angeles, where he has spent more or less of his time for several years.

While a struggling lawyer in Chicago in the early nineties Bryan had a vision, and in 1896 he closed his law offices and with his wife moved into the heart of the sand dunes on the lake shore east of Chicago, and just over the State line. In ten years he owned 8000 acres of sand hills. Came the great steel company looking for a plant site.

"My land will cost you $1000 an acre, gentlemen," coolly announced the sand man. He got it. He was the first citizen, the first postmaster, the first to sign the petition to incorporate the city, and at its first election became Gary's first treasurer.

After the death of Bryan's first wife in Los Angeles he adopted an attractive young woman whose home was in this city and who is a relative of Tate's. The girl, then not yet 20, was Mona de Mode. She returned to Gary with Bryan, and is now married and living in the family mansion in that place.

Not all of Bryan's fame is dependent upon sand dunes and beautiful brides. He is an autocrat of enthusiastic parts and in May, 1910, drove his machine over the rails of the Santa Fe from Los Angeles to Chicago in eight days, running only in daylight and operating his car as a special under regular dispatcher's orders.

The millionaire groom and his pretty young wife are planning to sail next month for the Orient, visiting the Philippines, China and Japan, reaching home in time for the inauguration in Washington next March, and a visit at the Gary home before returning to this city.

WARE LIGHT FINGERS.

General Warning Sent Out by Police Headquarters for Public to Be on Guard Against Pickpockets.

"Look out for pickpockets." That was the warning sent out yesterday by Central Station detectives, not only to the public but to all members of the department. It was issued following the report of Dr. W. Hendricks, No. 132 East Fifty-fifth street, that he had been jostled in a crowd and robbed of a purse containing $20. Hendricks, a native of a north-bound Garvanza car at Second and Main streets.

He gave the police the following description of the man he thinks robbed him: 26 years old, five feet seven inches, 160 pounds, smooth shaven, light complexion, light suit of clothes of either tan or reddish tint, white straw hat and neat in general appearance.

ROBS, TRIES TO KILL, ESCAPES BY LONG JUMP.

AFTER robbing a guest at the Hotel Argonaut of $150 and attempting to kill him when detected in the act, a burglar escaped the guest after a terrific hand-to-hand battle in the dark and made his getaway by leaping through an open window twenty feet to the ground early yesterday morning.

Robert Wilson reported the burglary to the police. He said he was awakened by someone stumbling over the chairs in his room. In the half-light he was able to make out the form of a man going hastily through his effects. He leaped out of bed, demanding to know what the intruder wanted.

The thief, with dire threats, commanded Wilson to get back into bed. Instead of doing so, Wilson says he rushed at the intruder and in an instant they were rolling on the floor, fighting desperately.

The thief was the huskier of the two and Wilson was badly used up in the fight, though he believed he left a number of identifying marks on his nocturnal visitor as well. As the battle raged about the room Wilson kept yelling at the top of his lungs for assistance. His cries, together with the crash of furniture as it was overturned by the combatants, speedily brought members of the hotel management and other guests to the scene.

Apparently the thief heard them coming, for he suddenly tore himself from Wilson's grip and, rushing to the window, jumped out of the room feet first to the earth. To all appearances the long jump did not injure him, for he picked himself up and rushed to his heels through the darkness.

He took his degree in law at the University of Virginia, and soon moved to Omaha, where he practiced his profession. He married there, in 1889, Miss Nellie Towns of Kentucky, who died in 1884. Two years later Richards came to Los Angeles, where the opportunities for success in real estate led him to add that specialty to the law. He was identified with some of the big transactions of the city and county's upbuilding. For a time he was secretary and treasurer of the Providencia Land and Water Company, which founded the town of Burbank.

In 1887 he married Miss Mary Henry of Hopkinsville, Ky., at Los Angeles, and of this union three children were born. He was a man of broad acquaintance, full of confidence in himself and the country he had chosen as his home. He was a member of the Glendale Country Club.

Jesse Richards, the older son, visited his father at Glendale recently, but was called East on business and could not be summoned in time to arrive before his father's death. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but interment will take place at Hollywood Cemetery.

MORE TIME FOR INVESTIGATION.

Funeral of Buyer Strangely Killed Is Postponed.

Skull Fractured Just Prior to Reaching Home.

Valuables Intact; No Sign of an Accident.

The funeral of Fred J. Gunther, buyer for the toy department of Ham-burger's, which was to have been held this afternoon, was postponed by the family yesterday pending the police investigation of the mysterious circumstances surrounding his death.

Dying from the effects of a fractured skull and without uttering a word which would help to explain away the puzzling features of the case, the death of Gunther has given the police a mystery, which, so far, has completely baffled the detectives assigned to the case.

Dr. Charles B. Nichols, who was called in to attend the injured man as soon as the members of his family discovered that something was wrong, declared yesterday that the blow which fractured the skull, if blow it was, was delivered with a leather covered billy loaded with shot or sand. The scalp had not been cut and for this reason he said, the object which caused the injury must have been yielding.

It was declared yesterday that a fall could hardly have resulted in the skull fracture. The fracture was behind the right ear and ascended upward to the point of the skull.

Earl Maier, a grandson of the dead man, said yesterday that the family has discovered nothing which would aid in clearing up the mystery.

SAID HEAD HURT.

"My grandfather came home about 9:30 o'clock in the evening," said the young man. "He walked into the house and we noticed nothing wrong. When he came home he was tired and wanted to rest and we sat around talking and reading until bedtime."

"We still thought nothing of his lying there, as he often came home and lay down to rest. He had taken off his shoes and apparently had gone to bed. The rest of us went to bed and it was not until grandfather woke up and saw that grandfather was still on the bed dressed that she thought anything was wrong."

A physician was called at once and he discovered that grandfather was suffering from a fractured skull. He was taken to a hospital where he died without regaining consciousness."

Members of Gunther's family say that when he comes home he either takes a Sixty-first street car and alights at West Fifty-fifth street, within a few steps of his home, which is at No. 211 or takes a Fifty-fourth street car and gets off at the car turns west on that street.

Detectives examined the neighborhood yesterday and found that Gunther was in the habit of walking across a vacant lot when he rode home on the Fifty-fourth street car. It would have been easy enough for anyone to have struck him from behind with a billy as he was crossing. If so, it is thought the blow probably grazed him but did not cause him to fall. The police say that whoever may have attacked Gunther evidently did not see him when he was not been rendered unconscious.

WAS ALMOST HOME.

"Gunther had received the blow that caused his death only a few moments before he entered his home," said Dr. Nichols. "It could not have been given longer than twenty-five minutes before he got home and probably he was hurt just a few moments before he entered the house. He was dazed by the injury and mechanically walked into his house, answered the one question which was put to him, and sought his bed."

Gunther never drank and there was no sign of any drug when he was examined by the physician. His valuables were intact when he reached home. He had about $20 and his gold watch in his pockets. His straw hat had not been crushed and there was no dirt on his clothes to show that he had fallen.

Gunther's associates at the store state that he left the office at the usual closing time. He was in excellent spirits at the time and said that he was going directly home. His whereabouts between that time and 9:30 o'clock, when he reached his residence, have not been ascertained.

DOESN'T KNOW HER CHIEF.

Newly Appointed Policewoman Asks Sebastian to "Leave Name and Phone Number, Please."

Mrs. Rachel D. Shatto, the third and most recent appointee to the police bureau, assigned to the probation bureau, entertained Chief Sebastian for a few minutes yesterday afternoon, but didn't know who he was. She has not yet been informed of the identity of her visitor.

While making the rounds of the Central Station yesterday the Chief wandered into the new quarters of the probation bureau, which were moved into the latter part of last week.

MRS. SHATTO WAS THERE.

"Is there anything I can do for you?" asked Mrs. Shatto.

"No, I guess not," returned the Chief, with equal urbanity. "I want to see Mr. Uras."

"Will you leave your name and address, or telephone number, so he can call you up when he comes in?" asked Mrs. Shatto.

"No, thank you. It is not of that much importance," was the Chief's reply as he left the bureau.

NO MATCH AT MATCHING.

Texas Loan Hundred and Seventy-five Dollars to Pair of Smooth Strangers at Heads and Tails.

It cost David Rice of Cripple Creek, Tex., $15 in gold and a $150 draft to find out yesterday that he was no match for a new-found friend and a friend of his friend when it came to matching dollars. Central Station detectives are searching the city for the friends.

Rice arrived in the city yesterday en route to Fresno. While waiting at the Arcade station for a north-bound train he was accosted by a stranger who offered him a good job on a ranch a few miles from town. While they were waiting for their train the man suggested they take a stroll through the city. Rice was agreeable.

One of the sights shown Rice was Westlake Park. While strolling along a path a "stranger" to Rice's newly-found friend engaged them in conversation.

It was not long before Rice had won a small sum matching dollars, the odd man taking each pot, containing $3. And it wasn't long after that that Rice was out his three $5 gold pieces and his $150 draft.

Payment on the latter has been stopped by detectives wiring the San Francisco bank on which it was drawn.

Relief from Ennui.

BORED, AUTO ON LONE JOY RIDE.

HAS PERFECT ONE, EVEN TO WRECK AT THE END.

Worried of Protracted Wait Alone, Big Machine With Modern Ideas Starts Off by Itself and Has a Fine Time Until Wrecked by Mere Telegraph Pole.

Bored to extinction by a long wait beside the curb at Fifth street and Grand avenue yesterday, a large and restive Mitchell touring car finally relieved its suffocating sense of ennui by a personally-conducted joy ride all by itself. The police were later able to classify the jaunt as a typical joy ride by the wreckage. No arrests were made, but the auto went to the hospital itself, badly injured.

The festive machine's number is that listed to Miss Florence Colby, of Bakerfield. After waiting for what it considered to be a reasonable time for the return of its driver, the car started off on its own hook down the hill, careening back and forth in an ecstasy of joy. After a while, apparently, the necessity of winding up a perfectly good joyride with a thrilling smashup occurred to the auto, which is a new one and up to the minute in all particulars.

It therefore selected a promising-looking telegraph post and went for it at full speed. It did not take the curbing into account, but that was the curbing's loss. The auto hit a large piece out of the solid concrete and went right along toward the inviting pole.

Delirious with joy, it attacked the pole and attempted to climb it forth with. The pole was badly shocked and considerably splintered, but stood its ground. The machine went straight up in the air at this repulse and, baffled, fell back on its tail lights with a bang and a snarl.

Residents of the neighborhood, aroused by the crash, hurried to the rescue of the telegraph pole and succeeded in pacifying the enraged auto to the extent of gathering its wreckage beside the curb, again to await the ambulance from a near by garage.

Capt. Murray, in charge of the Central station, states that the owner of the machine will be cautioned against leaving the independent and self-willed car alone and unattended in future.

CHRISTIAN SCORE BUILDS CHURCH.

NEWEST HOUSE OF GOD REARED BUNGALOW STYLE.

Unique Edifice of Worship Dedicated to the Master's Service by Faithful Little Band of Methodists—Stands Free of Debt, Subservient to the Cause.

The new Arlington Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, a unique bungalow structure at Fifth avenue and Washington street, was dedicated yesterday afternoon under the favorable auspices lent by a crowded auditorium and a distinguished speaker.

The principal address was delivered by Rev. Ray Harker, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Phoenix, Ariz. Presiding during the ceremony of dedication was Rev. F. M. Larkin, district superintendent, who offered prayer and introduced Dr. Harker.

Rev. J. J. Bryant, pastor of the church, whose effort has been largely accountable for the acquisition of the new structure, spoke briefly. The scriptural reading was given by Rev. Clyde Sheppard, a former pastor, who has been attending an eastern theological school since he left Los Angeles.

Miss Cora Glass sang and there was a prayer by Mrs. J. J. Bryant and Miss Lois Matthews.

Dr. Harker took as his subject "The Temple Not Built With Hands." Standing speaking of the glory of God as expressed in the human heart and of the inner, subjective temple that should exist independent of all material edifices.

The bungalow church has a total membership of only twenty, but the structure was dedicated free from debt. A collection taken yesterday netted more than $400 and wiped out the last obligation. The building is of lath and plaster construction with tiled roof and has a Sunday school assembly room in addition to the main auditorium. It cost approximately $7000.

Peace in Setting and Panoply of War.

Notable figures and scene at the encampment of the Southern California Veterans' Association at Huntington Beach, where nearly a thousand heroes of the Civil War are gathered under the flags of nearly every State in the Union.

for the Veterans' Association at Huntington Beach when he declared that those who deride and belittle the Chief Magistrate of this nation and insult the American flag should be made to leave the country. He scored those who carry other flags without the Stars and Stripes in processions as anarchists and enemies of this government and more than 2000 persons stamped and cheered and cried "That's right."

The sermon stirred the patriotism of the audience to a marked degree and was filled with eloquent tributes to the old soldiers and earnest pleas to remember their services in preserving the American nation as the leader of Christian civilization.

The memorial services were deeply impressive and the calling of the roll of the veterans who have died since the 1811 encampment was especially pathetic, many of the widows and children of the dead being present in the congregation.

The services opened with the playing of "The Sweet By and By" by the G.A.R. drum corps of Los Angeles and the singing of "The Vesper Chime" by W. E. Herendens of this city, and a quartette of veterans. An empty chair draped in the colors of each organization represented the Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish War Veterans, the Sons of Veterans and the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Adj. R. Heffelfinger read the list of the dead of the last year and it showed that 127 veterans had gone to the great white camp above. The number included the following: 12, Stanton Post of Los Angeles, 14, Heinemann Post of San Diego, 7, N. P. Banks Post of Torrance, 2, Malvern Hill Post of Fullerton, 1, Union San Post of Santee, 1; Burnside Post of Santee, 2; Riverside Post, 1; Long Beach Post, 1; Westaburg Post, 1; Pomona, 1; Godfrey Post of Pasadena, 1; Jackson Post of Santa Monica, 2; Kennesaw Post of Los Angeles, 2; San Diego Post, 1; San Bernardino Post, 1; Escondido Post, 1; Ontario Post, 3; other posts, 10.

At the close of the reading of each list Philo Case, "the drummer boy of Shiloh," beat taps on the drum and Bugler Ned Holderman of Tustin sounded taps at the close of the reading of the roll. The same ceremony was performed at the close of the reading of the names of dead of the ladies' auxiliary societies.

Mrs. F. C. Mason of Pomona sang the service closed with the singing of America by the audience. In the afternoon there was a song service and at night a sacred concert. Monday morning the encampment court will be held to try offenders or alleged offenders against camp discipline and in the afternoon will occur the annual prize dance of the veterans. At which there is a minimum age limit of 45 years for those participating.

Total Destruction of House and Its Contents in Owner's Absence, Together With Odor of Kerosene About the Premises, Points to Use of Torch—Reasons Unknown.

An incendiary fire which totally destroyed a house and its contents early yesterday morning caused much speculation on the part of Central Station detectives. Following two other suspected arson cases that occurred last week, the police are inclined to think there is a gang of fire fiends at work in different sections of the city or that individuals, actuated by revenge or other motives, are responsible.

Yesterday's fire totally destroyed the home of S. Duncan, who lived at No. 125 Isabel street. The house and contents, according to information given out by the fire department, were insured for $1500. The estimated loss according to Duncan is $1200.

Duncan and his family went down town early Saturday evening. He says he securely locked every door and fastened down all the windows before he left, as is his usual custom. When he and his family returned home about midnight, he was surprised to see flames breaking through a second-story window.

Running around to the back of the house, Duncan says he found the rear door leading into the kitchen open. There was an odor of coal oil. The flames spread with such rapidity that the department was unable to save the building, although the firemen responded promptly to an alarm. After the flames had been subdued the odor of coal oil was easily detected throughout the debris.

He had no idea who could have set his house on fire, or what their motive might have been. He said he has no enemies that he thinks would resort to such means for revenge.

Opening the Fortieth State Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

In this city yesterday. Nearly 400 members of the order are in attendance here from all parts of the State. Above is a glimpse of the parade behind the shamrock from headquarters to St. Vibiana's Cathedral yesterday morning. Below are the officers of the State organization. Right they are M. E. Griffith, San Jose, secretary; John Donohoe, San Francisco, treasurer; William Boyle, San Francisco, senior vice-president; M. J. McGarry, Los Angeles, president.

GATHERING MAY

With Big Attendance.Warm Welcome Extended
by Bishop Conaty.Lively Contest on for State Order's Presidency.

Preliminary sessions of the fortieth State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians yesterday indicated that the convention will be one of the largest ever held by the order in this State and that a spirited contest for the presidency is likely to enliven the business sessions. In addition to the big delegations that came in night before last more than fifty delegates arrived yesterday morning and it was estimated that nearly 400 of them attended the church services yesterday morning.

The first meeting of the day was at convention hall in the Walker Theater building at 9:30 yesterday morning. There the local and visiting delegates formed in line behind a band and marched to St. Vibiana's Cathedral, where seats had been reserved for them.

Solemn convention mass was said, Rev. John Hickey being the celebrant. Rev. Dr. Deenihan was deacon. Rev. Fr. Galvin, subdeacon, and Rev. Francis J. Conaty, master of ceremony. The deacons of the bishop were Rev. Joseph McManus and Rev. Fr. Terence Caraher of San Francisco.

After mass an eloquent and cordial address of welcome and congratulation was made by Bishop Conaty. There were present with him the sanctuary R. Rev. Mgr. Harneet, vicar general of the diocese; Rev. R. A. Gleason, president of the Jesuit College at Garvanza, and Rev. Fr. Sagor. A special sermon to members of the Hibernian order was preached by Rev. Joseph McManus of St. Mary's Church, chaplain of the Oakland division.

Four degrees were given in the convention hall yesterday afternoon to a class of elects, the largest ever taken in at one time in the State. The work was performed by the degree team of the Los Angeles division. A large delegation of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A.O.H., was present.

Supper was served in convention hall annex last night at 8:30 o'clock. The ladies of the auxiliary acting as hostesses. Following the supper an entertainment was given and addresses made.

P. F. McCarthy was chairman of the evening and introduced P. J. O'Connor, president of the county division, who delivered the address of welcome. The speaker congratulated the delegates on the growth of the order, which now numbers more than 4000 in this State, and predicted that the convention this week will be the most successful ever held on the Coast. Judge Paul McCormick, President McGarry and others spoke briefly.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is represented by about eighty delegates, most of whom are from San Francisco. The State officers are represented by the following: Mrs. Mary Martin, San Francisco, president; Mrs. Marie Forrester, San Francisco, vice-president; Miss Elizabeth Higgins, San Jose, secretary; Mrs. Mary McEvoy, Los Angeles, treasurer; Mrs. S. McFadden, San Francisco, past president.

YOUNGEST HIBERNIAN. Among the delegates who arrived by boat yesterday was Miss Eileen Hennessy of San Francisco, the youthful president of the newly organized juvenile division. Miss Hennessy is serving her second term as president of the division and although she is only 16, is an efficient executive officer. The division has about forty members.

The class initiation tonight by the Ladies' Auxiliary will be one of the most important and interesting events of the convention. A class of forty candidates will be taken in the work being done by the degree team of the Los Angeles division. The team has held many rehearsals and the members of the auxiliary believe that tonight's exemplification of the degree work will be the finest ever seen in the city.

Mrs. Mary Kane, vice-president of the Oakland division, who was slightly injured in yesterday morning's accident, had almost entirely recovered yesterday and will be able to participate in the proceedings of the convention.

The business sessions of the convention will begin this morning and continue through Wednesday. Only one session will be held today and that will be devoted largely to the reports of officers. The elections of officers will probably come up Tuesday afternoon. Chief interest in this connection centers in the contest for State president, for which office there are three candidates, with John Cox of Oakland said to be in the lead.

One of the results of the collision between an auto bus and a street car at Fourth street and Central avenue, in which Mrs. Ida K. Reichart, No. 1600 California street, San Francisco, was almost instantly killed and four other persons were injured yesterday morning, will be a request made by the police department to the street car company that it oblige its motormen to observe the speed ordinances the same as autos and other motor driven vehicles.

Detectives who investigated the fatal collision say themselves that the car, in charge of Motorman Brooks and Conductor Bordin, was making about twenty-five miles an hour at the time. The crew was taking the car to the barns after its day's work. The police contend that the street cars are not privileged to exceed the speed laws any more than an auto or a motorcycle chauffeur.

The car crew is not held entirely to blame for the accident. Bert Smith, the bus chauffeur, is blamed for cutting the corner and otherwise violating the traffic regulations. Up to a late hour last night Smith had not been apprehended. Before the case was turned over to Central Station detectives he visited the barn where the bus was kept. After securing his personal effects and asking questions about the accident, he left.

The coroner said yesterday he would hold an inquest over the remains of Mrs. Reichart either today or tomorrow. She was the wife of the vice-president of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of this city, with headquarters in San Francisco.

Of the four injured, Mrs. Gueña, No. 783 First avenue, Point Richmond, was the most seriously hurt. She suffered a broken right knee, which may make her a cripple for life.

Mrs. Reichart and the injured, except Smith, were visitors to the city on the occasion of the Hibernian convention. At the time of the accident Mrs. Reichart was on her way to visit Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sheady, superintendent of maintenance of the Southern Pacific.

The Struggle in the Wilderness

Unlabeled, But Savage Battle, Cost the Armies Over 1000 Killed and Wounded in Ten Hours' Fighting

As they appeared during the Wilderness campaign, other photographs illustrate the battle of the Wilderness. The battle of the Wilderness was a decisive battle in the American Civil War. It was fought on May 5-7, 1862, between the Union Army of the Potomac and the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia. The battle was a tactical draw, but it ended Lee's rapid advance on Washington, D. C., and preserved the Union capital. The battle was one of the bloodiest in the war, with over 17,000 men killed or wounded on both sides.

BABY RIOT AROUSES FANS IN SUNDAY'S BALL GAME.

Catcher Mitze of the Oakland Team Bumps Umpire Townsend in a Squabble Over a Close Decision—Errors Lose Baum an Interesting Contest—Two Home Runs Feature Morning Show.

By GREY OLIVER.

CATCHER MITZE of the Oakland team, rushing to the plate in the seventh inning of the game yesterday afternoon and bumping Umpire Townsend in the stomach in the apparent effort to start a riot, was the principal dramatic episode of the final contest of the series between the Oaks and Tigers. Six thousand persons watching the game half raised in their seats, expecting an assault on Townsend by some of the rabid Oakland players, particularly Mitze—but there was none.

Ten minutes later Third Baseman Hettling bawled out to Townsend at the plate, "You big bum, you," and a excited fan in the right field bleachers added to the animosity of the various races collected on the field by howling at Speed McDonnell that he was a dirty ball player for "colliding" with Cook at first in the ninth when Cook "struck out" over Mac and fell to the ground. These were a few of the interesting things the fans saw in the final game of the week. Someone wanted to start something, but it appeared that no one was particularly anxious to finish it.

Vernon won the morning game 4 to 3 and lost in the afternoon 3 to 1 and it was in the first of the seventh inning of the matinee that the little almost disturbance happened. Baum had been pitching fine ball for Vernon and made Patterson out at first. Zacher hit a scratcher to Litchi, who made an error and when the ball bounded into the Vernon players' pit Zacher ran to second. This netted Baum and he passed Coy. Hettling followed with a grass cutter to Burrell, who jogged the hard chance, falling to the ground as he tried to get his foot on third.

These things filled the bases with some out and some fans and a mingled chorus of joy and sorrow rolled over the field.

Cook set the fans on fire with a hot single to left that scored Zacher. Coy got to third on this and scored when Carlisle allowed the ball to get away from him.

To the surprise of the fans Hettling also tried to score on this, but a relayed throw from Carlisle to Litchi to Agnew, Hettling was caught at the plate. Cook dashed around to third but was thrown out by Agnew for a double play.

MITZE GETS BUST. When Ump Townsend motioned Hettling out at the plate, Mitze rushed out from the Oakland bench to the plate, circled around Townsend and then bumped into him with his stomach waving his arms and yelling that Hettling was not out because Agnew had not touched him. Six or eight other Oakland players also ran to the plate, as did a number of Vernon men, and the combined noise of the dozen men speaking at once could be heard above the talking, laughing and cheers of the fans.

Oakland loudly declared that Hettling had not been touched and that he was getting away from the noise of a dozen men around him. Townsend walked over to the Vernon bench and took a drink. No blows were struck by anyone, but there was enough rough stuff to make a good political convention.

All of them got it out of their systems before they finished talking, but at that the majority of the players unanimously agreed that a cow would make very near as good an umpire as Townsend.

The two runs that scored were enough to win the game, for the Tigers got but one. Eight seats were scattered and had good support in the tight places.

WILKINS BEAT BAUM. Baum had good ball for the Tigers but the fellows behind him threw his game away in the seventh. The Oaks got four more hits and a sacrifice off him in the eighth for three useless runs, but the game was past redemption then.

In the ninth Cook slammed a long hit high up on the left fence and in rounding first base "collided" with McDonnell. Cook fell to the ground and thus could not reach second on what would ordinarily have been an easy double. Cook declared that Mac had interfered with him and Mac came back with the story that Cook had run into him. Some of the fans yelled out that McDonnell was dirty ball player, but I cannot prove it. I was watching the ball and not the runner.

CRICKET GAME ENDS IN A DRAW.

LOS ANGELES HAS BEST OF IT AGAINST PILGRIMS.

Higgins Carries Out His Bat Boy 116 Runs and Equals Batting Record for the United States by Scoring Six Individual Centuries in One Season.

Los Angeles and the Pilgrims played a drawn game of cricket at Vineyard yesterday afternoon, the result being greatly in favor of the home team. With only 4 wickets down for 153 runs, Los Angeles declared the innings closed and put the Pilgrims in to bat.

Rasmussen and Bamford played so well and kept their ends up so persistently, that the Los Angeles trundlers could not dispose of their opponents before the call of time.

P. J. Higgins, by scoring a century in yesterday's game, has equaled the batting record for the United States. The present record is six individual centuries in one season. With several games still to be played, Higgins has a very good chance of establishing a new record for cricket in this country.

Next Sunday a practice game will be played by picked teams, in order that the players of the first eleven may get into shape for the two matches against San Diego on Labor Day.

RECKLESS SHOTS BY THE HUNTERS.

W. A. PORTER REPORTS ON THE DEER SEASON.

Does Are Being Shot and Deer Were Shot Before the Season Opened—His Party Brought Down Two Fine Bucks—Hunters Should All Wear Red Bands.

W. A. Porter of No. 1046 Catalina street, a veteran hunter, returned from Topanga Canyon yesterday with two bucks. One was a six-point deer, weighing 280 pounds. In his party were Oscar Elliott, G. J. Odell and Hy Odell.

Mr. Porter, who has hunted in the California hills for many years, says that the deer are plentiful this year, but that the hunting conditions are very bad. There is need for the game wardens to get on the job.

Hunters report that does are being shot by excited amateurs, and that a good many deer were shot the day before the season opened.

The day before the season opened Porter saw eighteen deer and counted ten the first day of the season.

The conditions he reports as being dangerous for hunters. The first day he felt the wind of a bullet as it sang a few inches in front of his head, fired by some reckless hunter.

He earnestly recommends that all hunters wear the red bands put out by some of the sporting goods houses this year. In some parts of Europe hunters always wear red coats. Such apparel, which has always seemed designed for comic opera hunters is beginning to dawn on local hunters as eminently sensible.

MCDONALD SETS PACE IN TWO-HANDED PUT.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The standing high jump mark at which Platt Adams won that event in the recent Olympic games was equaled by both him and his brother, Benjamin, at Celtic Park today. Adams brothers both cleared the bar at five feet four inches, and tossed a coin for medals.

Pat McDonald, Irish-American Athletic Club, the Olympic and world's champion, won the twelve-pound shot-put from scratch, both hands, with 59 ft. 1 1/2 in. His right-hand put was 54 ft. 3 1/2 in. and 44 ft. 10 1/2 in. was his left-hand effort.

As this was the first time in this country the twelve-pound shot was used for competition with two hands, McDonald's put establishes an American record.

ANGELS WIN FIRST GAME AND TIE UP SECOND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Los Angeles ran the vacuum cleaner over Portland in a game of a double-header today, 2 to 0, and had things ready to drive the Beavers to fifth place in the second game, when "Pop" Dillon and Catcher Boles messed up a play that presented Portland with two runs and tied the score, 4 to 4.

The second game was limited to six innings to permit the Angels to catch a 6 o'clock train for home. As the fatal slip occurred in the fifth it did not require an X-ray to find the silver lining to the cloudy climax. It was almost a victory.

Chadbourne was on third and Rapps on second as a result of a single and a two-bagger, when the excitement burst forth. One man was out when Krueger drove a high foul toward the right-field bleachers. Dillon's play was either to let it go or catch it, and he held the ball. But he went after a double play instead.

Chadbourne immediately scampered home, and when the amazed veteran's throw to the plate bounced past Catcher Boles, Fitzgerald, who had been sent out to run for Rapps, also ambled across the plate. Pandemonium broke loose as 5000 brood-fans realized that the Beavers' hit slaved off the fourth defeat in a five-game series.

Leverette started in the opening game. He set McCredie's men down with four scattered hits. Harkness twirled excellent ball, but an error by Kibbie, a walk and Boles' pinch hit gathered two runs for Dillon, and these proved sufficient.

Dillon's hitting featured the Angel run-getting in the second abbreviated matinee, just as his lapse bridled on the Beaver side of the scoreboard. In the very first inning, he threw in Howard and Cora with a neat poke to right field. Later on in the fourth inning Cora realized that the Beavers' hit sent around to third on Dillon's hit and scored the third run on Metzger's

JIMMY JOHNSON TO GO EAST.

Invasion of Coast by Fight Syndicate Is Off.

Jim Followed Manager Here With Bad Results.

Genial Visitor to Return in Fall With Driscoll.

The invasion of California by the New York fight syndicate is over. Jimmy Johnson, who is the head of a bureau managing sixteen prominent fighters in and about New York, is going home tomorrow. His trip has been a disappointment. A jinx followed Jimmy.

He brought three fighters out with him—Owen Moran, Harry Thomas and Tommy Holoney.

A shrewd, adroit match-maker, Jimmy had no difficulty in getting matches for all three, backing up Moloney's fight took place first. Tommy came out as a lightweight, but the climate of California had such an amazing effect upon him that he was matched as a middleweight. The boy had actually grown so fast that he didn't know what to do with his hands when he got into the ring.

Owen Moran was matched with Jack White, but his hand and Harry Thomas took his place as a substitute, making a great impression with his brilliant boxing, but losing the fight.

Moran next fought White, and lost on a foul, being blacklisted forever by Uncle Tom McCarty on account of his dirty methods.

Johnson's third fight was the Comley-Thomas match last Saturday. Thomas won by his superior cleverness; but he had hard luck.

While waiting for his fight, he lived at Jack Doyle's training camp. Some of the boys out there got as inspiration to dig a swimming pool. Harry grabbed a pick and shovel and worked in the hot sun for several days. They finished the swimming tank, but when he got ready to go into training he hadn't anything left to train off.

He went into the ring so stale that he said his hands and feet felt like lead. At that, he came nearer knocking Comley cold than almost any other fighter who has had a whack at the tough little Italian.

Last night Johnson said that all the boys who have tried the almost impossible feat of knocking Comley out have tried the wrong method.

"Several technical knockouts have been recorded against Comley, but no one has actually made him lose consciousness. The boy who finally does the trick will be one who jabs him with the left."

"It takes a lot of moral courage to do this. When you jab Comley with your left his head goes back; but he comes right in after you. It is an almost uncontrollable impulse to land on him with the right as he comes in."

"This is just the wrong thing to do. The momentary interval between the landing with the left and the punch with the right gives Comley chance to dive in and begin walloping with both fists. If you jabbed and got away, jabbed again and got away, it would be easy enough to put out 'The Man with the Iron Mask.'"

Johnson says he will take Thomas East and get some fights for him around New York. In spite of the ill-luck that he has experienced, Jimmy is delighted with Los Angeles, and is coming back in the fall. He expects to bring Jim Driscoll over from London in September. He will probably bring him to Los Angeles.

Harry Thomas will also be sure to appear again in this city, where he made such a pleasant impression. He wants to meet either Kilbane or Atwell.

Johnson has made many strong friends here, and has shown himself to be one of the greatest seconds that has ever stood behind a fighter at Yarrat. The way he made Tommy Moloney by literally acting as that clumsy boy's brain, was an extraordinary performance.

NEAR SPEED TRAP WORKS.

The Accommodating La Casse Breaks Road Law.

Sees One Hundred Bucks Go Glimmering for Fine.

Gets Wise and Spanks Cops Who Pull Joke.

One day last week, it does not matter which one, Bill La Casse, local Studebaker sales manager, did a special favor for one of his salesmen. This was to demonstrate to a prospective customer the merit of a Studebaker "30," paddle a couple of kids and, incidentally, sell a car.

The car used for the demonstration was Bill's own semi-tonneau Studebaker "30," the pride of his heart, and one which he will allow no one else to handle.

All went well. The "prospector" liked the hum of the La Casse motor. He liked the way Bill handled it and, more particularly, he wanted to see how the car would act on the road to Venice.

It was a comparatively light time in Studebaker circles, so Bill accommodated. Just below the Washington street hill a little burst of speed was asked for.

"Can't do it," said La Casse. "It's against the law."

"Aw, just for a minute, just for a mile," pleaded the prospect, and the lusty toad of the law proved too strong—Bill opened up.

"Take a look behind and see if we're tagged," he said, after the car had been given "the run" and was rambling along, "way over the speed limit."

"Sure enough, we are," reported the prospect, and Bill looked back in time to see a khaki-clad figure writing on a scratch pad, while another personage, several hundred yards in the rear, was apparently taking notes from a stop watch he held at the other end of an obvious speed trap.

"Well, there goes a hundred bucks," regretfully sighed Bill, but he kept on to the beach just the same.

The rest of the journey and the return trip were made at funeral pace, and just at the foot of the same hill on the way back La Casse looked back to see the same personage of scratch pad and stop watch enacting.

"We sure weren't doing anything that time," fussed Bill, and he turned back to see what cops had been doing such a foolish work.

To make a long story short, they weren't cops at all—simply a couple of kids in boy scout uniforms, having some fun with the motorcade.

"You're too little to mess with," said the spunking boy, "and I'm one I'll bet you'll remember," grinned La Casse, and the ensuing "band work" was of the warm variety.

Incidentally, Mr. Prospect aided in the old-fashioned chastising and bought a car.

But that isn't the moral, and this is: Don't mistake anyone you meet for a couple of kids having fun.

LITTLE FIGHTERS GET BUSY FOR COMING BATTLE.

SUNDAY afternoon marked the beginning of the real preparatory work that is in store for Joe Rivers and his coming opponent, Joe Mandot, for both boys fired their first shots yesterday afternoon at their training camps before a representative crowd of local fans.

Joe Rivers started on his prepping steps down at Venice, where he is training at the Venice Athletic Club, which has been engaged by Manager Joe Levy as his quarters for his coming bout, and each day will bring new feats to his routine until he gets into his real stride.

Sunday afternoon Manager Levy ordered his charge to go through the usual loosening-up process that he always undergoes prior to going into real training. Venetians saw the local boy just taking things easy for the first day's work of what will lead into a hard stage of toil in the gymnasium and on the road.

When asked what his charge weighed at the present time, Manager Levy said he is lighter right now than he was several weeks ago, and that Rivers has not taken on weight as rapidly this time as he did prior to his match with Ad Wolgast.

So far only Brother Andy and Kid Dalton have been engaged in sparring partners. There is a likelihood of several good fast boys being added to the string. Rivers will gradually work his way into condition for the Labor Day contest with Willie Rooney as trainer, and will be kept busy.

MANDOT LOOKS GOOD.

Joe Mandot showed to a good-sized crowd at Jack Doyle's quarters Sunday afternoon. The Frenchman seems to be improving every day. He is working with better judgment and more ambition to obtain the best of effect from his efforts. Starting with a ten-minute session of handball playing with Hobo Dougherty, he stepped upon the open-air ring platform amid a great cheering, and quickly got down to action by doing two of the prettiest rounds of shadow boxing seen here in some time.

Following that exercise he punched the bag for two sessions, finally donning the gloves for the work that every visitor to a training camp goes to see.

Those present were given quite a treat by the fact that Mandot, talking to Jimmy Evans, the Kansas City lightweight, for two rounds, Mandot showed to great advantage. Evans is one of the most dangerous boys in the lightweight division, and made Mandot work. Joe had Evans ready to drop in the second round. Still Evans gave Ad Wolgast all he could handle in a three-round exhibition when the champion was training for the Rivers match.

SEVEN THOUSAND ATTEND RAILROAD MEN'S PICNIC.

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 18.—This was the red letter day in the year to the employees of the Pacific Electric Company, as the fourth big annual picnic given by the company to the employees of the mechanical department, was held here yesterday.

More than 7000 employees of the mechanical departments of the Pacific Electric Railway Company came today to the beach, double-headers on the Gardena line leaving the city every thirty minutes from 7:30 o'clock this morning, bearing the picnicers.

Although not as many children were in evidence as usual, at the picnic owing to the epidemic of infant paralysis, the grown-ups attended in full force and the picnic was more than three times as great in numbers as the first annual picnic held three years ago.

The beach was practically given over to the visitors and everything was free. The railway company gave them free transportation, free bathing privileges in the bathhouse, access to the beach, free refreshments, free coffee, and lemonade for all.

An interesting programme of sports for which cash prizes were given, was arranged and carried out, preceded by a ball game. The Pacific Electric mechanical team won over the outside department team by a score of 1 to 0.

After the ball game, the picnicers ate dinner in the picnic grove and in the music places, where the tables had been arranged with plates, paper napkins, and a cup of coffee, and lemonade was brought by the members of the party.

Owing to the absence of the children, the best move was made off and the programme of sports began promptly at 1 o'clock under the management of the committee on sports.

The contest of the big butting large, J. Roy Clark was the catcher and Harry Ward pitcher for the outside department and Fred Beale, catcher and Ray Myers, pitcher, for the mechanical team.

After the ball game, the picnicers ate dinner in the picnic grove and in the music places, where the tables had been arranged with plates, paper napkins, and a cup of coffee, and lemonade was brought by the members of the party.

Owing to the absence of the children, the best move was made off and the programme of sports began promptly at 1 o'clock under the management of the committee on sports.

The contest of the big butting large, J. Roy Clark was the catcher and Harry Ward pitcher for the outside department and Fred Beale, catcher and Ray Myers, pitcher, for the mechanical team.

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 18.—This was the red letter day in the year to the employees of the Pacific Electric Company, as the fourth big annual picnic given by the company to the employees of the mechanical department, was held here yesterday.

More than 7000 employees of the mechanical departments of the Pacific Electric Railway Company came today to the beach, double-headers on the Gardena line leaving the city every thirty minutes from 7:30 o'clock this morning, bearing the picnicers.

Although not as many children were in evidence as usual, at the picnic owing to the epidemic of infant paralysis, the grown-ups attended in full force and the picnic was more than three times as great in numbers as the first annual picnic held three years ago.

The beach was practically given over to the visitors and everything was free. The railway company gave them free transportation, free bathing privileges in the bathhouse, access to the beach, free refreshments, free coffee, and lemonade for all.

An interesting programme of sports for which cash prizes were given, was arranged and carried out, preceded by a ball game. The Pacific Electric mechanical team won over the outside department team by a score of 1 to 0.

After the ball game, the picnicers ate dinner in the picnic grove and in the music places, where the tables had been arranged with plates, paper napkins, and a cup of coffee, and lemonade was brought by the members of the party.

From here, Miss James first will go to Springfield, Mass., and later will embark at New York with her father for Europe, on the way to Manila.

REV. W. E. TILSON.
CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.
CHRISTIANITY IS A GOSPEL ALONE AND UNIQUE IN THE RELIGIONS OF HISTORY.

"The Beginning of the Gospel" was the theme of Dr. Tilson's sermon at the Boyle Heights Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday. He said in part:

The writer of Genesis, the story of original sin, put down, of course, what he considered the matter most worth while. Darkness and light, sun and stars, land and sea, vegetation and living things, men and women, right and wrong, were great affairs, and he wrote about them. We are sure John Mark did the same thing. The beginning of the gospel would be its large affairs as certainly as the beginning of creation.

"It is a matter of world-wide importance, that we have a gospel of authentic history. It is a gospel of the life of a man. A visit to Palestine may often be the death of sentiment, but if it is a resurrection of sense, the gain is distinct. An hour at the tomb of Napoleon may mean more to some men than weeks of European history. To feel that a Jewish nameless slave did verily live and rounded out his span of years as other men in a cradle of mighty things, a mythical legendary Jesus would be a shadow and a dream. A real historical Jesus may be everything else the greatest faith of the earth has known. The foundation carries the house."

"Again we have a gospel of relief and comfort. Jesus means savior. It is a gospel, indeed, that we have to tell. It saves the world from carelessness. That the Christian nations are the active earnest nations of the earth, is no accident. Their Jesus is life. It saves the world from coarseness and vulgarity. Christianity is refinement. The proportion of men there is in men may be seen in the slowness of the process, but no one doubts the ages are growing white. It saves the world from dishonesty and cruelty. The tiger is men is becoming a horror. The conquest of love grows reason. It was never wrong and wickedness. It was never before so respectable to be good. It saves from madness and gloom. Jesus and joy are synonymous. Religion is a gospel is the comfort of the earth."

"Again our gospel is a revealing. Its Jesus is Jesus the Christ, the absolute, the one sent forth of God. He alone battles with the holy ghost. Upon Him the holy spirit rests. To Him angels minister. His word is quiet, and the lame leap and sing, and the deaf hear, and the blind see. In the gospel the earth is a school of the heavens. That under the sun there is no learning enough for men is no small affair. That we are only a little lower than the angels may really be true. That the Christian religion imparts dignity into human life is no wonder. Men are nobler than their dust."

"Finally we have a unique gospel, the only gospel of its kind, veritable gospel of divinity. Its Jesus is not only the Son of Man, the Savior, the Christ, the Son of God, Christianity not only reveals itself, it does nothing less than to reveal God. Men walk and talk with Jehovah, they follow the Nazarene. With such a message it is the marvel of the earth that the Christian religion conquers so slowly. One would think its empire would be born in a day."

REV. W. LEON TUCKER.
CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.

IN THE PALMS ARE REFLECTED THE PERSONAL GLORY AND WORK OF THE MESSIAH.

Rev. W. Leon Tucker, of Calvary Baptist Church, preached yesterday morning at the Calvary Baptist Church, 1141 S. Main St., the theme of "The Messiah in the Palms." He said in part:

"David, who was a prophet, saw the personal glory and perfect work of Christ beforehand. The Psalms are not poetry only, but divine prophecy in poetic form. They were not the records of the events at hand, but the advent to come. They were not only the experiences of David, but of David's greater son, of whom David was but an old Testament shadow—Christ was the substance."

"Amos, one of the fathers, was right when he said in his quaint way: 'When you read the Psalms you may keep your left eye on David, but you must keep your right eye on Christ.' Some one asked the late John Wilkinsons 'which of the Psalms were Messianic?' and he answered: 'Will you tell me what Psalms we behold both the suffering and the glory of Christ? We behold Him in His human robe and divine sovereignty. In His humiliation and in His exaltation.'"

"I shall never forget, when first I felt the force of Christ's words recorded in Luke's gospel when he said, 'Have you not read me in the Psalms?'"

"I looked for Him, and lo, I found Him there in all the beauty and grandeur of the glory of the ages. The Psalms were magnified to me and this poetry took on the lofty character of prophecy. It was glorious in its glory."

"To know Christ is to know the Scriptures and to know the Scriptures is to know Christ."

DR. A. S. PHILIPS.
CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

THE HUMAN HEART IS LIKE A TENNIS COURT. FULL OF TOSSES AND TO AND FRO.

"I am full of tosses and to and fro," a text from Job vii, 4, formed the basis of a sermon by Dr. Arthur S. Philips at Central Baptist Church, Alvarado and Pico streets, last night on "Lawn Tennis," the second of a "summer athletic series." He said, in part:

"Tennis, of which lawn tennis is the modern successor, is the oldest of all games of ball, taught by the Italians to the French in the Middle Ages, and by them to the English, who originated lawn tennis in 1474. It has developed from hand to glove, glove to racket."

"Our motto text reminds us that the human heart is like a tennis court. Its abject exponent bids us study two games at once, for the game of life is the only one worthy of serious study."

"Competing players battle for the supremacy. A net divides the court across which competition is fast and furious. This element of competition is not so conspicuous in baseball and football, where there are no many players that comparison dims contrast. God and self are fighting—I say God, for he carries on the fight in person in a converted man's heart. It is a fight to the death, in which one must prepare for a great variety of service from his enemy. One side or the other will win."

"A battle is being lost here tonight, or being won. In every life, God is the game deliberately. Study your opponent's methods when he plays with others. Read the history of sin's victories in the daily paper and realize the fight you are in. Many a successful baseball pitcher is knocked out of the box in life's contest for moral supremacy. Many a football player is thrown at the posts and the ball taken from his hands. Alexander, dying, said his crown would go to the strongest."

"What are the winning rules? A great player says, weigh carefully the advice of the onlooker, he sees the game best."

"There are only three ways to fail: 'First, to fail to hit the ball. Many a man fails to be a Christian because he started wrong.'

"Second, to hit the net. To get half way and fail."

"Third, to pass the court lines. Overdo the emotional side of religion at the start, and you fall in the practice at the end."

"Intense application to your game is an essential element of success. Always be moving, or with knees flexed ready to move. Never wait for the ball to hit the racket. Brilliant attacks wins against solidity of temper often. Fight on till you win. Men who wanted but one stroke to win the championship of England have lost that stroke. Souls on the borderland of eternity have been pushed aside by men with more spiritual and moral grit."

"When a baby is born in Persia the parents pray only: 'May the feet of that child be blest.' It is enough. Blessed are those feet that walk to the gate which Christ holds open to them that are strong enough."

Next Sunday night Dr. Phelps is to speak on "Golf," his favorite game."

REV. C. T. MURPHY.
ST. ATHANASIUS CHURCH.

WE MUST NOT ONLY NOT DO EVIL, BUT WE MUST INSTINCTIVELY ABHOR IT.

Rev. C. T. Murphy preached at St. Athanasius Episcopal Church yesterday on the bidding of St. Paul to "abhor that which is evil, and cleave to that which is good."

He said in part: "A passionate love for good requires as a foundation an energetic repulsion of evil. The temper and temptations of the day seem to need a stirring call for the cultivation of the dynamics of the soul in this direction. The spirit of tolerance towards one another among men of varied opinions and viewpoints is one of the excellencies of modern life. But the spirit of tolerance and the complications of advancing civilization may combine in such a way as to blur our moral sensitiveness and weaken the feeling of disgust at that which is vicious. It is becoming difficult to maintain a definite position on any moral question. Our young people are confused by the failure to condemn the open viciousness of sin."

"For instance, the land is teeming at present by a wave of malcontent. Dirty plays, dirty operas, dirty vaudeville, dirty dancing, dirty novels, dirty short stories, dirty pictures insinuate their bestial temptations before young and old incessantly. And how and it is that so many of the religious writers, producers and performers are using their splendid technical abilities to make the vilest fleshly lusts palatable and alluring? One might suppose from some of our magazines, theaters and newspapers that beauty, art and joy could only find expression when wedded to lasciviousness. No wonder the fashions for women reflect the opinion that it is smart to be indecent."

"The wages of sin is death. Frightened educators and physicians are calling for a campaign of social hygiene. They would explain quietly to the young not only the things they ought to do, but the things they ought not to do to preserve healthy bodies. Something more is needed. They should be taught to abhor evil. The repulsion of the mind from sin is needed to keep the heart and soul pure. A conscience strongly prejudiced against that which is evil is the only assurance that they will succeed in cleaving to that which is good."

"We all need to share the wrath of the Holy God revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness. This is not hatred for evil men, but for the evil in men. The lips of Jesus Christ pronounced the most awful denunciation upon impurity, hypocrisy, and every sin. It is the love of God for His children that causes His anger against the sin which is destroying their manhood and womanhood. The Cross of Jesus Christ is at once the divine condemnation upon the world's wickedness, and the message of divine salvation from the curse of sin. The pity of it is that ignoring the cross and its teachings, we are so tolerant of sin in society that the innocence of our children is being sacrificed to the recrudescence of the ancient heathen civilization."

"It is the Christian's duty to abhor that which is evil."

DR. THERRAP.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A THREE-FOLD PICTURE OF THE WORKING OF CHRIST AND HIS LESSONS IT TEACHES.

Yesterday morning Dr. Russell F. Therrap spoke at the First Christian Church on the subject, "The Working of Christ and His Lessons It Teaches."

"A truly successful and prosperous church of Christ will embrace in its membership all classes and conditions of society. Such a church will have the rich to give the financial strength, and the poor to meet the required of the poor who have said that you have the poor always with you. Such a church will have the young to give it freshness and enthusiasm and the aged to give it the wisdom born of large and varied experience. It will also have those in middle life with chastened enthusiasm and ripening wisdom. Strong to fight the battles and calm to rejoice in the triumphs of Christian life. Each class acts and reacts healthfully and helpfully on each other class."

"I desire now to bring before you a three-fold picture of the working of Christ and a three-fold lesson from the working Christ founded upon Luke 11:49; John 1:14 and John 17:24. The first picture takes us back to Christ's first pasover. Pasover festivities were over. The pilgrims are starting for their distant homes. The company from Nazareth have gone a day's journey. The boy Christ is missing. Joseph and Mary turn back to the city in search for the missing child. They found him in the temple. Many have found Jesus in the sanctuary since their mother's day. What a picture! Jesus in the midst."

"The second picture is contained in John 1:14. I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is day. The night cometh when no man can work. He is now in the midst of his manhood ministry. Notice the striking expression of Jesus, 'I must work.'"

"The third picture is contained in John 17:1. I have glorified Thee on the earth. I have finished the work which Thou gavest Me to do. Here is a perfect work with its work finished. And now for the threefold lesson from the working Christ:

"First, the beauty and desirability of early consecration. One begins the Christian life at 20 years of age and lives till 60. Another begins the Christian life at 60 and lives till four score years old. With the one it is thirty years of service for Christ, with the other it is twice thirty."

"The second lesson is the importance of manhood activity in the service of the Lord. Many say 'Can-

"The third lesson is the blessedness of reviewing a life well spent in the service of humanity. The end comes to all. The end of opportunity, the end of work, the end of life. How different the end of a Christian as compared with others. It is all the difference between success and abject failure. Life must not be measured by years but by work done for Christ and humanity."

DR. STACKHOUSE.
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

GOD IS ABLE TO SAVE TO THE ULTIMATE MOST AND BY SO DOING GUARANTEE SALVATION TO MEN.

Dr. Stackhouse took as his theme, "Who Cannot be Redeemed?" at the Temple Baptist Church last night. Basing his discussion on the words found in Hebrews 7 and 12, "He is able to save to the uttermost." He said in part:

"There is no more superlative statement in the pages of sacred truth than the text. If men and women are not redeemed it is not because divine provision for their salvation has not been made. The prophet said, 'Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?' Whatever the reasons may have been why the health of the daughter of his people was not recovered, it was not because there was no balm in Gilead, and it was not because there was no physician there. There is a physician, sovereign, eternal and unfailing, whose skill is sufficient to meet every human need. That Physician is Christ."

"Forethought of the existence of merit is not the cause for the exercise of grace, for God Himself does not foresee any good thing in man, except what he foresees he will put there. Sovereign grace is the marvel of the universe. It is the greatest thing that is greater than all else. Some one has said that grace is love outpouring love. Sovereign grace selects such as Saul of Tarsus, the rebel against Christ, and his church, and arrests him in infinite love, that God through him may show forth the power and abundance of his redemption."

"Salvation is not a joint stock affair in which men invest so much and God invests so much, and the results are divided. Since the time that the law of God was violated in Eden's garden, the perfect keeping of the law by human hands has been impossible. Neither is the keeping of the law set forth in the gospel of Christ as God's way of acceptance. By grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. All may be saved who accept him. To refuse to accept him is to forfeit the offer of salvation and to yield to the power of God's grace is to seal your own eternal doom."

Los Angeles Motorcycle Club indulged in its Annual Run to the Beach.

VENICE, Aug. 18.—Exhausts from more than a thousand motorcycles evoked the echoes in Venice this morning when members of the Los Angeles Motorcycle Club held their annual run to this city. The entire north side of Windward avenue was lined two deep with the machines when members had alighted from their machines and spread over the beach. An attempt to take a panorama picture of the crowd resulted in a failure, as there were too many of them, and all wanted to get into the film.

G. H. Blacklock, president; A. H. McCulloch, secretary; Fred Everett, vice-president; and E. H. Holland, treasurer, rode in an automobile, and arranged a programme that kept the members busy all day. The big crowd on the rattling machines received badges at the clubhouse in Los Angeles at 8:30 a. m., and then left two abreast for Venice, the line stretching over three miles. All morning was given over to a visit to the concessions, many of which granted half-rate to the motorcyclists and their friends. In the afternoon dancing was free to the motorcyclists in the Venice dance pavilion, and the return was made at 5 o'clock.

"The third lesson is the blessedness of reviewing a life well spent in the service of humanity. The end comes to all. The end of opportunity, the end of work, the end of life. How different the end of a Christian as compared with others. It is all the difference between success and abject failure. Life must not be measured by years but by work done for Christ and humanity."

DR. STACKHOUSE.
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

GOD IS ABLE TO SAVE TO THE ULTIMATE MOST AND BY SO DOING GUARANTEE SALVATION TO MEN.

Dr. Stackhouse took as his theme, "Who Cannot be Redeemed?" at the Temple Baptist Church last night. Basing his discussion on the words found in Hebrews 7 and 12, "He is able to save to the uttermost." He said in part:

"There is no more superlative statement in the pages of sacred truth than the text. If men and women are not redeemed it is not because divine provision for their salvation has not been made. The prophet said, 'Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?' Whatever the reasons may have been why the health of the daughter of his people was not recovered, it was not because there was no balm in Gilead, and it was not because there was no physician there. There is a physician, sovereign, eternal and unfailing, whose skill is sufficient to meet every human need. That Physician is Christ."

"Forethought of the existence of merit is not the cause for the exercise of grace, for God Himself does not foresee any good thing in man, except what he foresees he will put there. Sovereign grace is the marvel of the universe. It is the greatest thing that is greater than all else. Some one has said that grace is love outpouring love. Sovereign grace selects such as Saul of Tarsus, the rebel against Christ, and his church, and arrests him in infinite love, that God through him may show forth the power and abundance of his redemption."

"Salvation is not a joint stock affair in which men invest so much and God invests so much, and the results are divided. Since the time that the law of God was violated in Eden's garden, the perfect keeping of the law by human hands has been impossible. Neither is the keeping of the law set forth in the gospel of Christ as God's way of acceptance. By grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.
